

Mutts and Goodboys

My work is a synthesis of several material practices centered around a singular alternate universe of anthropomorphic baseball-obsessed dog-people. Strong, intense emotion comes hand in hand with fandom, and these pups are unashamed to put their candid emotions on display. From brand loyalty and pride in your team colors, to crushing on their favorite player, to wanting vengeance for the team when they fall. I've made a series of paintings, embroideries, and soft sculptures that bring this universe into our 3 dimensions, and explores how these pups might go about displaying their pride. -Mark Zubrovich
